

Introducing eNETEmployer "Recruitment"

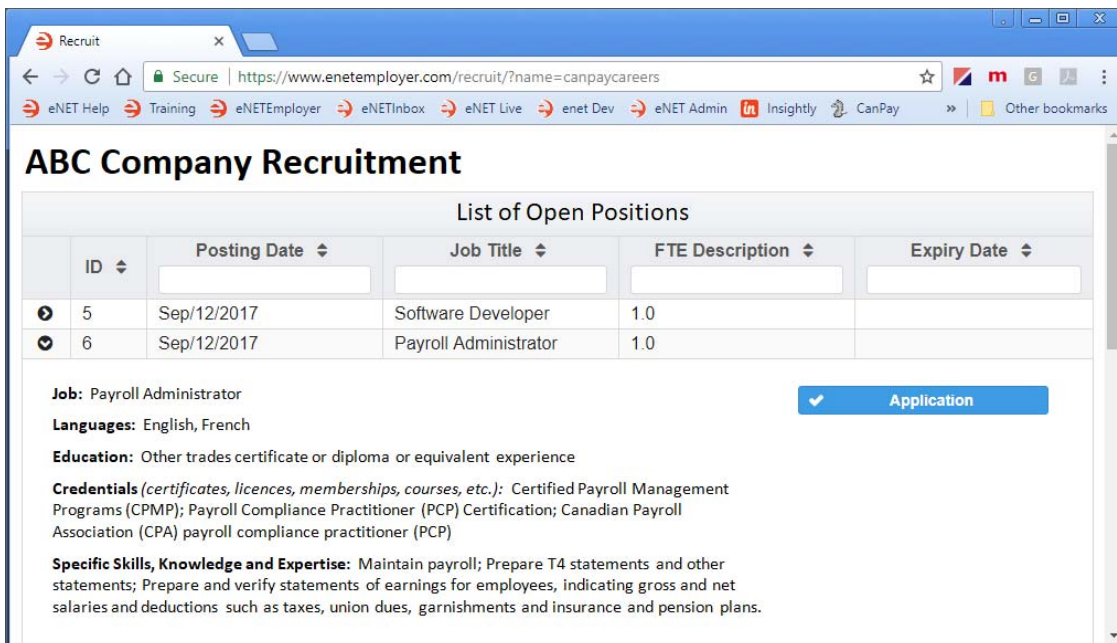

CanPay is proud to announce eNETEmployer's newest enhancement - "Recruitment"

Recruitment

Now you can create online job questionnaires and post them to your company's "Careers" web page. When a prospective employee applies for the job, your HR administrator receives an email notice and can view the submitted responses, resumes and other associated files.

- Weighted Scoring - Job questionnaires can have as many questions as needed, and each question can be weighted for the automatic calculation of each applicant's overall score. This saves you the time of reviewing numerous job applications - simply watch for an applicant whose score meets your objectives, then contact them for an interview.
- Resumes and Attachments - During the job application process, prospective employees can attach their resume and other documents associated with the job.
